

User Rights link to have third party metadata.

xbox.com/en-US/developers/rules

This should be efficient enough to for usage of Halo images.

I have also changed the name, which was not in accordance to the rules but now the app should be in accordance.

I have also made statements in the description of the app to separate the app from Microsoft.